General Information

- The Solo and Ensemble Festival provides an opportunity for LAUSD students who sing or play standard instruments to select and prepare appropriate musical literature for performance assessment.
- Participants perform for a qualified adjudicator who critiques & evaluates the performance.
- Students are given a written evaluation, short clinic and a certificate of rating.
- The LAUSD music teacher must be an active member of L.A.S.M.T.A. in order for his/her students to participate in the Solo and Ensemble Festival.
- Fees are $10.00 for each soloist and $15.00 for each ensemble.
- All entries and checks must be received no later than Monday, February 27, 2015. Entries received after that date cannot be accepted.
- Performance times will be posted at lasmta.org the week before the Festival.
- Students should perform music that is appropriate to his/her stage of development and that is considered to be worthwhile by the music teacher. Pop music is inappropriate. Piano students see special instructions below.
- Each soloist or ensemble must provide one musical score for the adjudicator.
- Ensembles may not be directed. There is no limit on the number of soloists or ensembles that may be entered from any one school or the number of events that each student may enter.
- Soloists should provide their own accompanist if needed.
- Clip together and highlight those entries that have special scheduling needs such multiple performances by a soloist, ensemble member or accompanist. Please note if any entries must be scheduled in the morning or afternoon and we will try to accommodate.

Day of the Festival

- Students should plan to arrive at least 45 minutes before their scheduled time to allow for check in and warm-up.
- Bring your music and a copy of the music/score for the adjudicator.
- Warm-up room assignments will be posted at the Check in/Information Center. Students may only warm-up in the supervised warm-up room.
- A teacher or responsible adult must supervise the students during their entire stay at the festival.
- Parents may listen to the performance/clinic in the assigned classroom and record the performance.
- Adjudication forms and certificates may be obtained at the Check in/Information Center about 30 minutes after performance.
- Snacks and drinks will be available to buy at the Festival.
